

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Mystery of lake front bloody cap cleared. Owner was Antonion Forananc, 24, 945 Throop street, who had tried suicide.

Mother of Mabel Sturtevant, arrested for using mails to defraud, will come to her assistance.

Special divorce court, with Judge Baldwin presiding, opened today.

Harold McCormick through with aviation. Too risky.

Mrs. Frank Pratt, Wayne, Ill., says she saw woman and man together and heard revolver shot just before woman was found dead on Elgin, Joliet & Eastern railroad tracks.

Two men sleeping on fourth floor of lodging house, 148-50-52 S. Water st., narrowly escaped death in fire. $2,500 loss.

Henry L. Bailey, former warden of County Hospital, adopted his second child—a baby boy six months' old.

Atty. E. M. Seymour and wife, 4035 Indiana av., adopted Edna Williamson, 19.

Lena Kerstan, 2159 W. 12th st., hurt by auto driven by W. W. Wilkerson, Bethany, Ill.

Fire wrecked touring car of R. S. Cummings, 1453 Berceau av.

Mrs. Ella Wood Dean, just returned, will write book about the immorality of the Japanese.

Norman W. Harris, banker, gave $250,000 to Northwestern University.

Henry A. Blair, Leonard Busby and Ira M. Cobe will meet to arrange merger of car lines.

Otto C. Andreen, 5016 W. Huron st., probably fatally injured when his motorcycle crashed into auto driven by J. P. Merwin, 655 N. Central Park av.

Edw. Reinick, 50, motorman, broke leg trying to stop runaway horse.

Jacob Vinoski, 6, 2616 Luther st., killed between two trains at 26th and Rockwell sts.

Paul Grapas, 10626 Langley av., shot to death. Stanislaw Vieta, 19, held by police.

Chief Justice Olson says there won't be any night court in Chicago.

Sarah Zolotdr, 11 months, 1017 W. 61st st., fell from porch. Dead.

Mrs. Cora Burr, Buffalo, N. Y., reported to police that $400 and her friend, Edna Lindsay, disappeared at same time.

Capt. Halpin ordered men to round up all suspicious characters.

Felix Renek, 14, 1839 Harvey st., killed by Northwestern train.

Dr. W. J. Anderson resigned as night warden of County Hospital.

Safe robbers got $400 from Joseph H. Kirk Co., 3119 Emerald av., after binding Joseph Roundtree, watchman.

Watson Smith ordered held to grand jury as accessory before and after fact of murder of Michael Waschuk in holdup at Mandel Bros.' barn.

Progressive Club has invited Joe Cannon to debate against Ald. Merriam on issues of Progressive and Republican parties.

Public Safety Commission received $2,400 from Louis M. Hammerling, New York, president of Associated Foreign Newspapers of America.

Celia Kedzusch, 2, 4332 S. Honore st., died from burns sustained when she fell into tub of hot water Tuesday.

County Commissioner E. M. Board has plan whereby 500 employees could be done away with.

Special Prosecutor Northup plans to keep special grand jury busy for months.

Colored claimants to estate of Wm. Henry Lee, wealthy publisher, failed to prove their rights and case was thrown out by Probate Judge Gregg.

Beatrice Kaplan, 7, 1510 N. Campbell av., badly hurt by Broadway car.

Hugo Krause, head of Anti-Cruelty Society, at top of list for assistant county agent. Will probably take place.

City employees have kick against voting machine on way election of